Private Equity/Growth companies & Venture Capital

Process Sensing Technologies

We advised Process Sensing Technologies, a platform investment of Battery Ventures in the process-measurement market, on its acquisition of SST Sensing Limited, a global provider of oxygen-measurement and liquid-level sensors based in Scotland.

Kreos Capital VI (Expert Fund) LP - ViCentra

Advised Kreos Capital VI (Expert Fund) LP on its €12 million growth capital investment in ViCentra B.V., a leading Dutch medical device company which enables patients to take back control of diabetes with Kaleido, its insulin pump therapy designed to give patients the freedom and flexibility to do whatever makes them feel good.

Dash Water

Advised a UK-based sparkling water brand, Dash Water, on its fundraising of a Series A funding round for £1.6 million. Dash Water was founded in 2017, and produces a range of sparkling water products which utilise surplus fruit and vegetables that would usually go to waste to create sugar-free and calorie-free soft drinks. This transaction reinforces Dash's growth in Europe and demonstrates the firm's expertise in the F&B sector.

Kreos Capital VI (Expert Fund) Limited – Lab21

Advised Kreos Capital on the reorganisation and subsequent sale of one of its portfolio companies, Lab21 Healthcare Limited for an undisclosed sum. Lab21 supports healthcare providers and the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries with technically advanced testing services from its accredited facilities in Cambridge, UK.

Kreos Capital VI (UK) Limited – BeMyEye

Advised Kreos Capital VI (UK) Limited on its €3 million growth capital investment in BeMyEye Holdings Limited, Europe's leading provider of crowdsourced retail execution monitoring solutions. Using a blend of advanced Mobile Crowdsourcing, Computer Vision, Machine Learning and Human-In-The-Loop, BeMyEye collects and processes data to continuously track retailers key sales fundamentals and provide insights for field forces to act upon, without further need for in-house on data collection or analysis.
